

Global leader in seaweed production

Indonesia is the world's number 1 producer of gracilaria, cottonii and spinosum, the raw material for Agar and Carrageenan.

Indonesia produces more than 75% of global cultivated tropical seaweeds.

More than 75%

Indonesia is your 1 spot location for production and processing of seaweed.

Indonesia has more than 1 million ha potential for seaweed production possessing almost 50% of tropical seashore area in the world.

Positive economic, social and environmental impact

70.000

The income generated by seaweed farming in Indonesia directly benefits an estimated 70.000 families across Indonesia

Seaweed farming is an economic and ecofriendly alternative to fishing communities facing overfished fishing grounds

100% Indonesian natural binding solutions to the world

Export

Indonesian Agar and Carrageenan is exported as a binding solution and gelling agent to food industry around the globe.

42

Carrageenan export countries

40

Agar export countries

Processing capacity

Carrageenan, more than 30.000 MT per year. Agar, processing capacity of some 10.000 MT.

Carrageenan 30.000

Agar 10.000

Export value expected to grow till 2021

Carrageenan USD 50 mln

Agar USD 20 mln

Worlds largest exporters

Carrageenan IN TOP 8

Agar IN TOP 7

Indonesian Carrageenan

100%

Indonesian product

Indonesian Agar

100%

Indonesian product and beautiful vegan alternative to gelatin.

Export markets include

Indonesian Carrageenan: Europe, USA, Japan and China

Indonesian Agar: Europe, USA, Japan and China

